What Can You Do in Your Region of New York State To Participate?

- The New York State Museum is in the process of creating a webpage dedicated to New York State's Commemoration of the 250th anniversary of the American Revolution. The webpage will contain events, resources, and information about New York's Commemoration, highlighting not just the role of New York during the Revolutionary War, but also the subsequent 250 years of complex struggle towards attempting to realize the ideals of our nation's founding principles. The webpage will also include news and information related to the America 250 national commemoration as well as links to local and regional organizations undertaking 250th or related planning.
