

The Holocaust Education Resource Organization of the Buffalo Jewish Federation's mission is to Remember the survivors and victims of the Holocaust, Teach the lessons of the Holocaust and Empower future generations to take action.

We invite you to experience the Simon Wiesenthal's Mobile Museum of Tolerance (MMOT). Fully funded by the New York State legislature, MMOT is a free, state-of-the-art traveling museum, the first-of-its-kind in New York. Utilizing innovative technology and interactive lessons, the MMOT offers immersive and engaging age-appropriate learning opportunities led by an experienced New York State educator. It provides state-standard and curriculum-aligned lessons for students in grades 5-12.

The MMOT offers five workshops that cover the critical topics of:

- The Holocaust
- Propaganda
- Hate
- Civil Rights
- Discrimination
- Dehumanization

ITS MOBILITY AND ADAPTABILITY MAKE IT ACCESSIBLE TO A WIDE AUDIENCE, DELIVERING IMPACTFUL EDUCATION THAT IS BOTH CONVENIENT AND TRANSFORMATIVE.

JOIN US FOR AN OPEN HOUSE ON NOVEMBER 18

Temple Beth Tzedek parking lot from 8:30am - 1:00pm.
1641 N Forest Rd, Williamsville, NY 14221

To register please visit bit.ly/MMOTOPENHOUSE or scan the QR Code.
Experience this wonderful learning opportunity firsthand.

THE MMOT WILL BE IN BUFFALO JANUARY 1 - JUNE 30.

To schedule a visit to your school, please register at buffalojewishfederation.org/mmot-request or scan the QR Code.

For more information about the MMOT please email Lauren Bloomberg at lauren@buffalojewishfederation.com.